

SimTiki Fellowship & International Scholar Program

Program Directors

Benjamin W. Berg, MD

Jannet Lee-Jayaram, MD

Course Description

SimTiki Fellowship and International Scholar Programs provide 1-2 year independent-study post graduate opportunities utilizing SimTiki resources, faculty, education programs, and research projects. Fellows and Scholars join SimTiki education and research activities as a faculty member of our department.

Core Curriculum

Participants will gain practical experience and skills in the following areas of simulation-based healthcare education (SBHE):

1. Best practices in SBHE
2. Instructional design and curriculum development
3. Educational research
4. Simulation center program development/operations
5. Professional presentations

Program Activities

- Journal Club
- Curriculum Project
- Research
- CHSE Study Group
- Colloquium
- And more!

Details:

Flexible Program Dates

- Apply 6 months in advance

Requirements

- Language: This program is conducted in English
- Healthcare education experience
- Zoom or in-person interview
- Submit application & CV
- Click to review eligibility

Program Fees

- See registration for details

SimTiki Simulation Center

John A. Burns School of Medicine
Medical Education Building, Room 212
551 Ilalo Street, Honolulu, HI 96813

SCAN OR CLICK ME!

Register Online

Phone: 808-692-1085
Email: help@simtiki.org

Fax: 808-692-1250
Website: <http://www.simtiki.org>

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
John A. Burns School of Medicine